

WEEKEND WHEELS

Would it be beneficial for my family?

- Weekend Wheels is a supplemental weekend food program that provides a backpack on wheels to elementary age children to bring home on Fridays filled with food and snack items. Back packs are returned on Mondays to be repacked for the upcoming Friday. This program distributes through John F. Kennedy, Clover Street, Oliver Ellsworth and Poquonock Schools. Homeschooled families can also participate.
- Food provided in the backpacks help supplement food costs on weekends when students are not eating in school.
- Eligibility for the program is based on household income. See chart below. If you qualify for free or reduced school meals you are automatically qualified for Weekend Wheels. The table below shows a yearly gross income for each family size. If your household income is at or below the income listed for the number of people in your household, you are eligible to receive TEFAP commodities. (235% of poverty).

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8 *
Annual Income	$27,660	$37,436	$47,212	$56,988	$66,764	$76,540	$86,316	$96,092

How do I register for this program?

There are two ways to register.

Option 1: If you have been approved for Free and Reduced Meals in the school, you can see the FRC worker at your child's school for expedited sign up. Bring with you your letter from the Board of Education that you have been approved for free or reduced school meals and a picture ID.

Option 2: Contact Windsor Social Services at 860-285-1839 or stop into the office located at L.P. Wilson Community Center. Bring with you your ID, proof of address and proof of household income to complete a program application. Or if you qualify for free and reduced meals through the Windsor Food Services, you automatically qualify for Weekend Wheels. Bring with you your letter from the Board of Education that you have been approved for free or reduced school meals and a picture ID.

Within a week your student will start to bring home the weekend backpack for the family to enjoy.
