

Disclaimer for the Town's Website and Social Media Sites

The information and documents available on our website are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis and without warranties or conditions of any kind either express or implied. By accessing or using these websites, you agree to these terms of use. The Town of Windsor may change the terms of use at any time at its sole discretion and without notice.

Occasionally you will find links to websites outside of the town's website. These web sites are not under the control of the Town of Windsor. Therefore, if you access a non-town website, you do so at your own risk and the Town of Windsor is not responsible for the accuracy, currency, and completeness of the information or reliability of services available at such websites.

The Town of Windsor's social media and civic engagement sites are operated by the town and/or contracted vendors. The Town of Windsor welcomes participation on these sites but it and its vendors will also monitor and moderate posts for compliance with terms of use policies, such as this one.

Individuals who post shall not misrepresent their identity nor impersonate any person. The Town of Windsor reserves the right, at our sole discretion, to change, modify, add or delete comments or posts or images at any time.

Comments associated with unlawful activity or that contain offensive or vulgar language or images, personal attacks on staff members, elected officials or members of the public, political endorsements of any kind, links to outside websites, commercial advertisements or any other form of commercial solicitation will not be posted.

The Town of Windsor does not take requests from people wanting events, images or comments posted to any of its social media sites, including the town's website. The views, postings or opinions expressed by others on social media and civic engagement sites do not necessarily reflect those of the town.

The town does not endorse any product, service, company or organization advertisement or promotional posts on social media sites.

Please note that the town does not share information gathered through its social media sites with third parties for promotional purposes. However, any information that participants post is subject to the Freedom of Information Act and that law classifies certain information as public records, to be made available upon request.

Lastly, the town strives to be responsive but cannot commit to monitoring these sites continuously or to providing responses to all questions asked. In the event of an emergency that requires fire, police or ambulance services, call 911.
